

Bourns, Inc. Code of Ethics and Conduct

(Effective: April 3, 2020)

Bourns, Inc. Code of Ethics and Conduct (this “Code”):

Our Policy

It is the policy of Bourns, Inc. and its subsidiaries (“Bourns”) to conduct all business affairs in accordance with the highest business ethical standards, to comply with applicable laws, and to be a good corporate citizen worldwide. This policy applies to all employees, officers and directors of Bourns.

Our Customers

Bourns is committed to maintaining the trust and respect of its customers. Bourns competes fairly, honestly and by delivering superior products and services to its customers. Bourns does not authorize, condone, encourage or promote, directly or indirectly through others, unlawful or unethical behavior, such as bribery, kick-backs, pay-offs, promises to pay cash or things of value, or any other activities that may be construed or perceived as being corrupt, unlawful or unethical.

Our Competitors

Bourns competes vigorously but fairly and in compliance with applicable competition laws to ensure its goods and services are provided on their merits. Bourns uses only lawful means to obtain competitive information.

Our Business Partners

Bourns uses only authorized consultants, contractors, distributors, representatives, resellers, sales and marketing agents and suppliers (collectively, “Bourns’ Business Partners”) who have met or exceeded Bourns’ high standards and have entered into appropriate written agreements in compliance with Bourns’ global policies and procedures.

Conflicts of Interest

Bourns employees are required to avoid business decisions, conduct, or other outside activities that create an actual or potential conflict of interest with their obligations or duties to Bourns. Bourns employees must decline to engage in conflicting behavior or seek guidance and approval from the appropriate Bourns officials prior to engaging in behavior that could be considered as a potential conflict of interest. Bourns’ assets, including its computers and computer systems and other electronic systems or devices, may not be used for an employee’s personal gain.

Protection and Appropriate Use of Confidential Data and Data Relating to Individuals

Bourns employees may not exploit Bourns’ financial or non-financial data for personal gain. Bourns and its employees must protect the confidential and proprietary nature of (i) Bourns’ own data, and (ii) the data of others disclosed to Bourns in confidence. The privacy of data entrusted into Bourns’ care, including data provided by customers and Bourns’ Business Partners, as well as data relating to individual employees or other individuals, must be protected at all times in accordance with applicable legal and contractual requirements. Data relating to individuals may be used only in accordance with instructions set forth in applicable Bourns policies and guidelines and only if, and to the extent, necessary to fulfil legitimate purposes, such as assigned work responsibilities. If specific identifying information is not necessary, Bourns will strive to present the information in aggregated form or by some other anonymous means.

Responsible Financial and Non-Financial Recordkeeping

Each Bourns employee is responsible for the accurate recordkeeping and reporting of financial data and the integrity of Bourns' financial data and records. Bourns preserves all business records for their required retention periods, whether in paper or electronic form, to ensure that global and local requirements are met.

Respect for Diverse Culture and Commitment to Safe Workplace

Bourns is a single company comprising many diverse and differing cultures, thus each Bourns employee must strive to appreciate, benefit from, respect and understand other cultures and customs. Bourns employees must not discriminate against one another, including for reasons of race, color, creed, religion, national origin, ancestry, citizenship, age, sex or gender, gender identity or expression, sexual orientation, marital status, military and veteran status, physical or mental disability, protected medical condition, genetic information, or any other characteristic protected by applicable law. Bourns is committed to a bullying-free and violence-free work environment. No one is permitted to bring a weapon into a Bourns workplace. If you become aware of a violation of this provision, you should report it immediately to Human Resources and/or Bourns' security service.

Commitment to Human Rights, the Environment and Social Responsibility

Bourns supports and respects, within its reasonable ability to influence, the protection of international human rights set out in the United Nations' ("UN") Universal Declaration of Human Rights, the International Labor Organization's fundamental conventions and in the Ten Principles of the UN Global Compact. In particular, Bourns supports the eradication of slavery and human trafficking worldwide and the effective elimination of all forms of forced labor and child labor in violation of international standards. To that effect Bourns strives to eliminate from its supply chain any use of labor that is not voluntary or that does not permit workers freedom of movement such as prison, bonded or indentured labor. Bourns will use this objective as a criterion in the selection and management of Bourns' Business Partners. Bourns endeavors to undertake initiatives to promote environmental responsibility and encourage the development and implementation of environmentally friendly technologies, processes and products. Bourns is committed to reducing its environmental impact across its supply chain. Bourns encourages its employees to exhibit a strong sense of social responsibility by serving to enhance the communities in which they live and work.

Accountability

Bourns' employees are accountable, individually and collectively, for their behavior and actions. All employees are required to comply with this Code and failure to do so will result in appropriate disciplinary action. Bourns employees have an obligation to report unethical business conduct, any violation of Bourns' policies, or any undertaking of dishonest, destructive or illegal action. Bourns does not retaliate against employees or others, who in good faith, report what the person believes is or may be a violation of law, or a violation of this Code or other Bourns policies. Any employee who has questions or concerns regarding the application or interpretation of this Code should consult with the employee's supervisor or other member of management, Human Resources or the Bourns Ombudsman.

Suppliers and Subcontractors

Bourns requires its suppliers and subcontractors to comply with this Code, which may involve higher standards than required by local laws. Upon Bourns request, a supplier must promptly (i) provide relevant information to Bourns, (ii) allow Bourns or its representative to have access to the supplier's premises for inspection and evaluation, and/or (iii) verify to Bourns' reasonable satisfaction, that the supplier and its subcontractors and sub-suppliers reasonably comply with the standards and expectations of this Code.

Changes and Revisions

This Code is established, and may be revised, replaced, and/or discontinued by Bourns. Bourns will endeavor to provide notice of any material changes to this Code. The latest version of this Code is available at Bourns' website: <http://www.bourns.com/support/about-us/compliance-ethics-and-registrations>

=====

_____ (Vendor) confirms that (a) we have read and understand the Bourns, Inc. Code of Ethics and Conduct (this “Code”) and we comply with the intent and principals of this Code.

Vendor’s Name

By: _____

Name: _____

Title: _____

Date: _____