TISP® THYRISTOR SURGE PROTECTORS

October, 2016

Select Bourns® Model TISP4 Overvoltage Protector Series Products to be Discontinued

Bourns has decided to discontinue select Model TISP4 Overvoltage Protector Series products. A lack of sales volume and diminishing demand necessitates this action. Regrettably, replacement products are not offered at this time.

Products purchased during this End of Product Life transition period will be covered by Bourns' standard warranty. Last Time Buy orders for these products will be considered non-cancellable and non-returnable.
